

Answer Scheme –Set 2- First Term Test-2018

Listening Text

People in the world wear different types of clothes. In India people from various areas wear different dresses. Kurtha –Pijama is popular in North India, and Dhoti-Kurtha is worn by the people in South India.

In Colombia, the people mostly prefer Western clothes. The urban professionals wear dark coloured suits whereas the village people wear loose skirts and pants. So, the dress is a symbol of social class.

The women in Colombia like to wear bright coloured skirts and blouses with round necks. The men in Bhutan wear a 'gho' which is similar to Kimono of the Japanese people.
